THE ALMA MATER

I.

Where Chilhowee's lofty mountains
Pierce the southern blue,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
Noble, grand, and true.

II.

As thy hilltop crowned with cedars,
Ever green appears;
So thy memory fresh shall linger
Through life's smiles and tears.

III.

Lift the chorus, wake the echoes,
Make the welkin ring!
Hail the queen of all the highland!
Loud her praises sing.

Chorus

Orange, garnet, float forever,
Ensign of our hill!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail to Maryville.

Note.—An erect standing position is assumed at any time when the Alma Mater is being played or sung.

DR. RALPH WALDO LLOYD
President of Maryville College

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

May I extend greetings to every person who joins our Maryville family of 1946-1947. We shall prize each of you the more and perhaps expect the more of you because we have been forced for lack of room to turn away hundreds of others who wanted to come.

It will be a whole year after V-J Day when the Fall Semester opens. We continue to rejoice because the War is over. But the terrific disturbances of the War are far from over. People are distressed by the disorder, the selfishness, and the suffering seen all around the world, and all feel the inconveniences, pressures, and uncertainties of these days.

But Maryville College offers a fellowship and a program that make for happiness and progress. I hope you will find this a good place to be and the year a good one to remember all through the future.

RALPH WALDO LLOYD
President of Maryville College

PREFACE

This little handbook is just an attempt to give you some inside information about Maryville College which the regular catalog cannot include. We hope we can give you an idea of the side of college life which makes it so easy to forget assignments for a while; and also, we hope it may increase your impatience to get into the "swing of things" here at school.

Section I

GENERAL INTRODUCTION

"Knoxville Terminal! Change here for all points south! Hot dog! This is it. You're tired, dirty and somewhat unnerved by your trip, and you have a frightened, excited feeling at the thought of soon seeing with your own eyes the place you have visualized for so long. Your train or bus is rapidly emptying; so get out quickly. See those fellows and girls out there with Maryville lapel pins and streamers on their coats? They are looking for you; so go to them if they don't grab you first.

If you should not happen to see anyone wearing a streamer, then keep your eyes open for anyone carrying luggage with a Maryville sticker on it like your own. Perhaps you have already met Maryville people on the same bus or train, but if you're alone and are coming by train at an unusually early or late hour, you'd better catch a taxi to the bus depot. If you are coming by bus, just wait for the next Maryville bus. The buses run from Knoxville to Maryville on the half-hour, every hour except from 11:00 P. M. to 5:00 A. M.

During the day you will be greeted at Knoxville and again at Maryville. Here the fellows will see that the baggage you have with you is taken care of, though you may have to carry some of it.

You have six fairly long blocks to walk across the town and up college hill. Then you are here. Your first destination is the tables set up on the lawns at which you receive your room reservations, turn in your baggage checks for collection at the freight office, and ask any questions you like. The girls at the information tables want to help you, so don't be afraid to ask them.

You are probably too tired when you first arrive to take a real survey of the campus, but by evening you may feel like roaming. Let's take a little tour of the campus now.

You probably will come up the Corduroy from town, so let's start our tour from the gates there. Directly in front of us is the white frame building Baldwin Hall, one of the girls' dormitories. To the right is Voorhees Chapel, the dark red brick building in which the daily morning worship is conducted and where all kinds of entertainments are held. Looking down the street from the Chapel is a large yellow brick building, Carnegie Hall, the men's dormitory; and across the street from Carnegie is Memorial Hall, another girl's dormitory.

In front of the Chapel is Anderson Hall, a red brick building, one of the three oldest buildings on the Hill. Here are located the offices of President Lloyd, where sympathetic, understanding counsel is given to all who need it. Dean Hunter's office where you go for friendly advice on more things than grades; Miss Clemmie's office where you may find out about self-help; the treasurer's office, where you will get rid of your money; and the registrar's office, with which you will become very familiar. The rest of the building is devoted to classrooms.

As we walk out of Anderson past the fountain in front of us is the Book Store, where desk and study equipment can be bought at reasonable prices. A branch of the United States Post Office is located in the book room. From here mail is delivered to the dormitories and offices. Mail should be addressed: College Station, Maryville, Tennessee, with the addition of your dormitory and room number. The Book Store also supplies a loan library called the James R. Hills Library.

To the left of the Book Store is Pearson's Hall, a large brick building with white columns, another dormitory for women. Most upperclass women room in Pearson's while Memorial and Baldwin accommodate the sophomores and freshmen. On the first floor of Pearson's is the dining hall with which you will soon become familiar.

Behind Pearson's Hall to the left is the Ralph Max Lamar Hospital. A free clinic is held twice a week, and in case of slight illnesses no charge is made for nursing. The hospital has a very reasonable charge for patients confined to the hospital.

On leaving Pearson's Hall we shall go to Thaw Hall, the newest and largest building on the Hill. Just before reaching Thaw, glance to the left and you will see the Willard Memorial where President Lloyd lives. In Thaw Hall is located the Lamar Memorial Library which contains over 50,000 books. The library is open twelve hours a day from Monday to Saturday. The museum is located in a room partitioned off the library to the left of the entrance. In this room are found collections of rare objects from Japan, Korea, and China; relics of the Indians who used to live in this region of Tennessee; antiques from the Civil War; a model of our own college when it was known as "The Log College;" and many other interesting and valuable objects representative of the world. The second floor is used for classrooms.

We now leave Thaw and take a short cut over to Bartlett and the swimming pool, passing to the left of Fayerweather Science

Hall in which are located the chemistry, physics, biology, zoology, and home economics laboratories and lecture rooms.

Bartlett Hall is one of the oldest Y. M. C. A. buildings in the South. It was built in 1901, the brick being made by the students themselves under the leadership of Kin Takahashi, a Japanese student. In this building are located the Y.M.C.A. Auditorium, a small gymnasium and Recreation Center. You will quickly become acquainted with this Center, for almost every type of entertainment is provided for you there.

The swimming pool, where all the meets are held, is located in a separate building, to the left of Bartlett Hall. The pool itself is twenty-five by seventy-five feet. It is open for use on regular days throughout the week.

Behind Bartlett is the Alumni Gymnasium, one hundred ten feet square, equipped with a maple floor and collapsible bleachers.

As we walk out past the swimming pool we see the football field on the left and the baseball diamond on the right just before we enter the college woods. The woods are popular for picnics and Sunday afternoon walks, and the natural amphitheatre in the center of the woods is used for various programs during the year.

From the campus can be seen the distant Cumberland mountains on the west and the Great Smokies on the east. Truly, Maryville College has one of the most beautiful campuses of any college in America, and it is set in unusually beautiful surroundings.

Section II

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Council is at the head of all student activity on the hill. It is composed of twenty-two representatives from the four classes. Its officers are also the officers of the Student Body.

The Council is your voice in the school. It works in close association and is responsible for such things as Town Night and the Recreation Hall.

Council representatives are also on the Student-Faculty Senate which discusses campus problems with a faculty group. (For the Constitution of the Student Body see pages 48-62.)

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVITY

CHRISTIAN SERVICE. Maryville's Y.W.C.A. is open to all the girls on the Hill. It has always endeavored to help girls find real satisfaction in well-balanced Christian living. Keeping this aim ever in view, Y.W. has organized and conducts such groups as Nu Gamma Sigma, Pi Gamma Sigma, the Big Sister movements.

WORSHIP SERVICES. The Sunday afternoon worship services are planned to give inspiration and help. Problems of vital interest to all college girls are presented—personal, social, and international problems. Both new and old girls have opportunity to assist in some part of these services, and are greatly benefitted by the actual participation.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AND RECREATION. Besides the joint activities with Y.M.C.A. the program of the Y.W.C.A. includes such activities as the production of the May Day pageant, semi-annual tennis tournaments, social service work in the mission chapels and in the orphanage, and various social activities for the Y.W. members. The "Y" rooms in Thaw Hall are especially well adapted and equipped for group events or individual relaxation and enjoyment. All members are invited to use the "Y" rooms, which are always open throughout the day.

You will find that the members of the "Y" cabinet, the Nu Gamma and Pi Gamma leaders, and the old members of the "Y" are willing to help in every way possible. Give Y.W. a chance to be your friend and guide and join the old members as they strive toward the year's motto—"Onward with Christ."

NU GAMMA CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

Hello, New Girls!

Here's a sincere and wholehearted welcome to you all! You're the fortunate girls who will be taking that big and important step into a new realm of friendship and learning. Maryville College is not only a place where minds are broadened and interests deepened, but also a place where lasting friendships are made and every busy day is rich with fun and new experiences. Nu Gamma plays a leading role in the latter side of this program, because it is through your Nu Gamma leader that you will become acquainted with one another and the school. During the first few weeks your Nu Gamma group will have special gatherings "just for fun." Sometime this summer you will hear from your leader who will be ready and willing to give suggestions or answer questions about Maryville.

All we Maryvillians are looking forward to knowing you and sharing with you all the things that make college life happy and profitable.

We'll be seeing you at the station!

Sincerely,
ELSIE JEAN COTTON
Nu Gamma Chairman

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The President's Welcome

Hi Fellows,

Just a brief welcome from "Y". Most of you new men have heard or are hearing from individual members of the Y.M.C.A. telling you of our plans to meet you in Knoxville and on the campus. The Maryville "Y" plays an important part in the activities of the first week of school and we hope to help you all we can.

We sincerely hope that your contact with the YMCA will not end with the first week. We hope that you will join us as active members to share all the fellowship and the friendships that make "Y" mean so much. Our social program is well developed and we want you to share all of it. We likewise need your support of our personal spiritual-growth program as we attempt to keep "In Step with Him."

Sincerely,
FREDERICK WILSON

Y. M. C. A. ACTIVITY

THE MARYVILLE COLLEGE Y.M.C.A. offers to all Maryville men a great opportunity for Christ-centered fellowship and service.

COLLEGE SERVICE. The service of the "Y" begins when a student enrolls. An upperclassman assumes special responsibility for writing to him during the Summer and introducing him to the campus and old students when he arrives on the Hill. A Frosh Fellowship Club helps new men get acquainted and adjusted. The program continues with a watermelon pow-wow and a mountain hike in the fall and the annual banquet in the spring. The original sponsor of interclass athletics, the "Y" now helps administer the intramural program. The Devotions Committee regularly distributes copies of "Today" to all of the college men.

COMMUNITY SERVICE. The "Y" provides leadership for the program of the local cub pack and a scout troop it started.

WORSHIP. The central feature of the program is the Sunday afternoon meeting; through guest speakers, special music, or student discussion the attempt is made to reach the various problems of college men with the vital resources of religion.

JOINT ACTIVITIES OF Y. M. AND Y. W.

Devotional

Joint devotional meetings are conducted co-operatively by the "Y's" several times each year. One Saturday each spring the cabinets hold Retreat away from the campus for planning and devotionals.

Cultural

The Artist's Series, originally an activity of the Y.M.C.A., is now managed by a faculty committee assisted by the "Y's".

Recreational

Barnwarming, largely staged by the Y.W.C.A., is the gala affair that everyone attends on Thanksgiving evening in the Alumni Gymnasium. The proceeds help meet some world need.

Service

The Chatterbox is a social center and a convenient place to buy food, refreshments, and necessities. New students as they arrive on the campus are directed and aided by "Y" representatives. This handbook itself is a joint production.

Section IV
ACTIVITIES

HONORARY

Pi Kappa Delta

Maryville has the honor of having the Tennessee Alpha Chapter of the national honorary fraternity, Pi Kappa Delta. Members of the debate squad have consistently ranked high in national and local tournaments. There is a freshman debate squad as well as a varsity squad, both of which meet as classes and receive college credit for their work.

Theta Alpha Phi

Talented dramatic students may, upon meeting certain requirements for membership, be initiated into the Tennessee Delta Chapter of the national honorary dramatic fraternity, Theta Alpha Phi. All students have opportunity to try out for the plays given by various organizations each year.

Sigma Delta Psi

Membership in Sigma Delta Psi is earned by meeting the requirements of the various athletic tests in the presence of a responsible committee.

Alpha Gamma Sigma

Alpha Gamma Sigma was organized for the purpose of motivating high scholarship among students. Its requirements are equal to those of Phi Beta Kappa. Ten percent of the graduating class may be admitted provided the members have a grade point ratio of 6.5 or somewhat more than a B average.

SOCIAL

In the past there were four literary societies on the Hill. Recently all of the organizations have swerved from their original purpose, and have become purely social societies. The girl's societies, Bainonian and Theta Epsilon, are the sister societies of the men's organizations known as Athenian and Alpha Sigma. The societies meet every Saturday evening for programs of interest and fun.

ORGANIZATIONS

RELIGIOUS

The Ministerial Association

Organized in 1900, the Ministerial Association is composed of students that are candidates for the Christian ministry. It has for its object the enlistment of its members in various forms of active Christian work and the discussion of themes relating to the work of the ministry. Its members conduct regular preaching and pastoral work in the county prison, local missions, and the country churches in the vicinity of Maryville.

Student Volunteers

Since 1894 the students have maintained a Student Volunteer organization which is one of the strongest religious influences in the College. It is composed not only of those who have pledged themselves to the foreign field, but of those who are interested in this type of work. Regular meetings of the group are held Sunday evenings after Vespers. Some phase of missionary work is considered, and frequently missionaries on furlough provide valuable and inspiring first-hand material.

Parish Project

The Parish Project is a program of Christian service to communities in the vicinity of Maryville. Students who volunteer and are accepted for service in the Project carry on various types of service activity. These include Sunday school teaching and administration, teaching week-day Bible classes in a selected group of public schools, supervising young people's societies, and the leadership of character-building activity groups for boys and girls. The project is jointly sponsored and supported by the Board of National Missions, the Board of Christian Education, Maryville College, and the New Providence Presbyterian Church of Maryville. All who serve in the project are enrolled in a class and receive academic credit for satisfactory completion of the work each semester.

INTEREST

Writers' Workshop

Students who show interest and ability in literary work may be elected to the Writers' Workshop. The members are elected from the faculty and the junior and senior classes. Each member writes and reads aloud for criticism one paper a semester.

Nature Club

The Nature Club is organized for all those who are interested in Nature. The programs are planned to include movies, demonstrations, and similar entertainment. No technical knowledge is required for membership.

Art Club

The Art Club is interested in promoting appreciation of art and in stimulating its members to creative work. There is a wide field of interest which includes architecture, sculpture, and other branches of creative art.

COTTON CLUB

The Cotton Club is a social organization including students from Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and Florida. It gives an opportunity for students from the same sections to become better acquainted.

Disc Club

The Disc Club is organized for music lovers who desire better understanding and appreciation of good music. Each program is built around one composer's work and is introduced by a qualified commentator.

"M" Club

The "M" Club membership is restricted to those girls who have earned the college letter by participation in the athletic activities sponsored by the Point System.

Language Clubs

For students interested in modern languages and in the manners and customs of foreign countries, there is opportunity to gain confidence in the use of the foreign tongue, and to have enjoyment in the French, German and Spanish Clubs. The programs are varied from seeing pictures and hearing lectures to giving plays in the foreign language.

Pre-Medical Club

This club is organized to promote interest in medicine and in the medical profession. Anyone having interests along these lines is invited to join.

The International Relations Club

This club is to help students think intelligently about world affairs, presents well-informed speakers, informal discussion groups, and a current events forum.

MUSICAL

Vesper Choir

The College Choir provides good training and sheer joy for those who are interested in singing. It is composed of approximately fifty-five students who are admitted to its ranks only after passing rigid voice tests. In addition to its participation in the daily chapel and weekly Vesper services, the choir takes part in special programs on the campus and in town. This past year its program included a concert tour through parts of Tennessee and Alabama.

Girls' Choir

The Girls' Choir functions both as a choir and a glee club, including in its repertoire sacred and secular music. Its duties include some Vesper and chapel singing and special musical programs.

Band

The College Band is open to students with a fair ability to play a band instrument. Although no college credit is given for participation in this organization, band letters can be earned by faithful members.

Orchestra

Opportunity to become a member of the orchestra is given to all interested students who have sufficient musical training. Under certain conditions such membership carries limited credit. A spring concert is also given by the orchestra.

SOCIAL

Pi Gamma Sigma

This organization is sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. to promote fellowship between the town girls attending college and the dormitory girls. A luncheon is held every two weeks and an interesting program presented.

"B. G."

Originally formed for the purpose of hiking, this women's club has gradually taken on more varied activity. The membership is limited to eight persons.

Pi Upsilon

This club is sometimes called the Hi Trail Club. Like the "B. G." club it is a hiking club organized for the men, membership being limited to twelve persons.

PUBLICATIONS

Highland Echo

The "Highland Echo" is the Maryville College student paper which is delivered weekly. The editorial staff consists of members of the four college classes, selected on a competitive basis. Freshmen students are allowed to try out for the "Echo" through their English classes at the first of the year, twelve apprentices being chosen each year by the examination of samples of their writings in competitive tryouts.

Chilhowean

The "Chilhowean" is the annual year-book which is published by the members of the junior class assisted by representatives of the sophomore class. Containing a summarized record of the year's work in all departments of the college, this makes an attractive souvenir. After ordering their 1946 annuals, freshmen and new students will find it informative and interesting to sample last year's or earlier copies in the library.

"M" Book

The "M" Book is published each year by the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. and is designed to orient the new students to some extent to the type of program which Maryville presents in the cultural, religious, athletic and social fields. Copies are sent out to each new student before he comes to school.

PROGRAMS

RELIGIOUS

February Meetings

Since 1877 February Meetings have been a part of the religious program. A prominent religious speaker conducts daily services, the object of which is to deepen the spiritual life on the campus.

Fred Hope Drive

The annual Fred Hope drive is for the collection of funds for use in the work of an African mission school of which Mr. Hope, a former Maryville student, served as superintendent until his recent death.

Vespers

A Vesper Service is conducted in the chapel each Sunday evening during the college year. The service includes a sermon by some outstanding person, either a faculty member or a visiting speaker and special music by the Maryville College Choir.

Messiah

Each year on the Sunday before school is dismissed for the Christmas vacation the Fine Arts Department presents Handel's "Messiah" with a chorus of a hundred or more voices, built around the nucleus of the choir and the glee clubs, accompanied by the college orchestra.

CULTURAL

Guest Speakers

Each year the College brings many outstanding speakers from various parts of the state, the country, and the world to give the students first-hand information on the type of work which they do.

Artist's Series

These programs are sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. Each year the college brings to the campus a number of featured artists. Tickets are sold to the public; the cost to the student is included in the Student Activity Fee.

Program for 1946-1947

Egon Petri, Dutch Pianist, Nov. 2, 1946.

Mr. Petri will make several days stay here, giving two musical seminars followed by his recital. He is without doubt one of the finest pianists in the world. This marks his second appearance within three years at Maryville College.

A Night in Old Vienna, Jan. 25, 1947

This is an attempt to recapture with five outstanding young American Singers, the spirit and flavor of a musical evening when Vienna was at its height. Two singers known to the Maryville audience appearing in this group are John Guerney and Mona Bradford. It provides a unique evening of musical entertainment.

Grisha Golnboff, Violinist, Feb. 24, 1947.

Twelve years ago this twenty-three-year old violinist was an internationally-known child prodigy. He now appears as a mature violinist. His performances disclose a fine sense of style, marked by sensitive poetic lyricism. He handles the violin with no technical difficulties, producing a tone immaculately pure with silken smoothness and singing quality.

ENTERTAINMENT

The Social Committee which is organized by the Student Council has charge of all social and recreational activity outside of the regularly planned programs of the year.

Recreation Room

The Recreation Room is the pride and joy of all students because it is something which they dreamed of, organized, planned and finally made a reality. The Room is open at certain times each day to any student who wants to play a game of ping-pong, or try his hand at shuffle-board or badminton, or simply curl up in a comfortable chair and read a magazine.

Town Night

Tuesday night is not just Tuesday night anymore—it's Town Night, the night when you can get off the campus to see a movie or go bowling. Sponsored by the Student Council, Town Night has been a big success; and it certainly helps to break the regularity of the week's work and study.

Section V
ATHLETICS

MARYVILLE'S ATHLETIC POLICY

Maryville stands for the well-rounded, well-developed college life. For many years the college has realized that one must not only be developed mentally and morally but also physically. As a result of this realization Maryville College has placed an emphasis on athletics of all kinds. Besides having inter-collegiate athletics, there is also conducted a well-developed and highly organized system of Intramural athletics for men. Under the leadership of Mrs. Verton M. Queener, coach of women's athletics, the women have what is known as the point system. Both of these programs will be more fully described later.

Maryville does not buy her athletes. Those who come to Maryville come with the understanding that places on her athletic teams are open to physical fitness and average scholastic ability; nothing else. In addition it is true that athletic ability alone does not "make" a student at Maryville. Well-rounded effort in other extra-curricular activity and in the classroom is just as important.

If you have any athletic ability at all come out for varsity sports, for you will help yourself and the College.

INTER-COLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

On the night of September 21 the flood lights of Wilson Field will be turned on and the boys will be out there on the field passing and kicking the ball around. The campus will be crowded with excited students and town people eager for the game to begin, for it will inaugurate the beginning of another football season at Maryville College—the first since the beginning of the war. Because of the scarcity of men, inter-collegiate athletics have been non-existent during the past few years. Last year inter-collegiate basketball, baseball and tennis were resumed, and perhaps this year we can add also track, wrestling and swimming.

Athletics add a lot to the school spirit of the campus, and Maryville is proud of her teams and of all of you fellows who "go out" for any kind of sport. Three cheers for you. We'll be rootin'!

INTRAMURAL

The intramural program provides Maryville men with a chance to participate in various non-varsity sports for good fellowship, vigorous competition, and physical fitness. Running through the year as part of the physical education program, two types of competition are offered. The division or team sports are conducted in two leagues, society and independent, operating on the same schedule. Play-offs are held between league champions. The all-college sports are engaged in individually or in small groups, each person representing himself. Faculty teams or individuals may take part in intramural activity but are not eligible for awards. Sports which are included in the intramural program are speedball, football, basketball, swimming, track, and softball. A pamphlet has been prepared in former years which sets forth the organization, objectives, regulations, point system and other information concerning the program.

POINT SYSTEM

As at most colleges, there are no longer intercollegiate contests for women at Maryville. For them has been substituted the Point System, directed by Mrs. Verton M. Queener and her assistants. Like the men's intramural program, the Point System attracts those seeking voluntary and required exercise.

Participation in the different sports qualifies a girl for a given number of points. To those earning over 300 points awards are made at the end of the year. Every girl must walk the seven-mile loop twelve times a year, swim twice a month, and spend an hour in exercise daily. Those who play basketball, soccer, indoor baseball, or volleyball earn 30 points for their team. Taking part in swimming, track, tennis, hiking or aerial dart tournaments entitles a girl to 50 points. Additional points are awarded for sportsmanship, membership on the squad, managing a team, and perfect attendance. The observance of health rules gives a maximum of 25 points a semester. High scholarship adds a percentage of the total. Members of "M" Club (those who have earned at least 400 points) take a mountain hike each spring, and enjoy several other activities.

Common Sense For College Students

Have regular hours for study—and use them for study. Effective studying is partly a science and partly an art to be mastered by each individual through studying his own particular habits and needs.

"Tote fair" with the home folks. Match their sacrifice with your diligence. Write to them, especially Mother, at least once a week. Your neglect will convict you of the crime of ingratitude.

Be yourself—your best self, consistently. If you have ideals, hold on to them; if you have questions, ask them; if you have ideas, put them to work.

Don't let anyone tell you that "activities" are as important or more important than studies. They're not—at least not for any student who has a reasonable amount of brains and intellectual interest. If you haven't these, leave college now!

When you get a chance to further a friendship with a professor, don't be a fool and think it isn't done—grab it!

Spiritual "rickets" may be fashionable with some students but you cannot walk with undernourished legs. And walk you must to live, and live you must before you dare to die. So—go to church; not to please the school, but to refill yourself with strength, courage, and truth in order that you may perform with the greatest ability your life tasks as you see them cut out before you.

Experience is the stuff of growth; and you grow only when you reflect upon and evaluate your experiences and the experiences of the race, and then on the basis of such evaluations, act more wisely in the future from the way you have acted in the past.
